#RaisetheAgeNY Call for Justice Campaign

January 16: Statewide Call-In Day

New York is one of only two states that automatically charges all 16- and 17-year-olds as adults. This is proven to be bad for public safety and for young people. We know what works and what is just. It's time for legislators to do what's right and pass a comprehensive bill to raise the age in New York.

Take Action: on January 16, Martin Luther King Day, please call and leave a message for Senate Majority Leader John J. Flanagan, urging him to support raise the age in 2017. It's easy.

Call Senator John Flanagan: 631-361-2154 and leave a message:

Hi. My name is _____ [if you live in District 2 on Long Island, note that you are a constituent.]

I am calling to urge you to make comprehensive 'Raise the Age' legislation a priority in the upcoming budget and legislative session. New York is one of only two states that prosecutes all 16- and 17-year-olds as adults for any offense, no matter what. This has been proven to jeopardize public safety and does not match what we know about how to help young people get back on track. Please support this smart-on-crime proposal and Raise the Age this session! Thank you.
