Getting Started

Codigital is a real-time ideas engine. It is a cloud-based platform for getting concise feedback and insight from large groups.

You participate by: adding ideas, voting on the ideas to rank them, suggesting edits to the ideas, and voting to resolve the edits as a group. This leads to the best-supported ideas rising to the top and improving.

You will be redirected to the GPS4Kids Online Community Engagement Platform via the “Enter Site” email link tied to your unique user account.

Click on the link provided in the email message from Codigital to migrate to the GPS4Kids Community Engagement Platform or type http://wca.codigital.com in your internet browser to log in with your email address and password. [If you do not have a password, you can set it by clicking on the "Forgotten Password" link.] This is your unique user account for participating and viewing your contributions including the status of your ideas, edits and/or rankings. You may view where you fall on the list of top contributors for each shared goal at any time.
