Yonkers Thrives Partnership Accountability Structure

DRAFT

Backbone: Neutral entities; provides key backbone staff, data and fundraising supports, communicates and works across sectors to eliminate silos and deliver results, and has convening power to ensure that key leaders will consistently come to the table over time.

Leadership Council: Comprised of core cross-sector leaders from the Stakeholder Table; provides strategic guidance; members possess the authority to leverage significant financial and/or social capital to advance Yonkers Thrives goals and outcomes; acts as key champions of the Partnership.

Executive Committee: Subset of the Leadership Council to have an active role in the oversight of daily operations of the Backbone.

Stakeholder Table: Leaders and representatives from government, businesses, universities, education, labor, parents, students, CBOs/nonprofits, philanthropies, health care; drives collaborative action; use authority to align and broker resources to implement strategies; promote and report data to Yonkers Thrives Partnership and public.

Collaborative Action Networks: Comprised of existing / emerging groups and coalitions, including stakeholders, practitioners, parents, students and issue experts. Specific responsibilities include:

- 1) Identify contributing indicators and commit to integrating these indicators into own performance tracking;
- 2) Identify successful strategies and commit to integrating into practice/program;
- 3) Identify Partnership achievements and commit to addressing areas of improvement; and
- 4) Communicate progress to the Stakeholder Table
